

Atty. Stacey L. Belding, B.A. (Hon.), LL.B.

Stacey Belding is an immigration lawyer and the Managing Director of jobCan Inc., an international recruiter for Canadian businesses. jobCan (www.jobCan.ca) provides all-inclusive recruitment solutions for companies experiencing labour shortages. They are headquartered in Winnipeg with corporate offices and affiliates in over 36 other countries, including the Philippines.

jobCan's related business/investor program buyCan (www.buyCan.ca) offers a comprehensive service to individuals wishing to purchase a business opportunity in Canada for immigration purposes.

Stacey also provides general immigration services to clients all over the world; handling federal and provincial nominee applications under skilled worker, family class sponsorship, temporary resident (worker/student/visitor), and business/investor classes, as well as humanitarian/compassionate and inadmissibility applications.

Ms. Belding is a frequent guest speaker to new and prospective immigrants as well as industry and other groups regarding the foreign recruitment process and legislative reform, immigration programs and rules, and the impact of Canadian demographics on the increased push for international recruitment and expanded immigration. She is featured regularly in the media and works closely with local and international governments, industry associations, and immigrant groups in an advisory and advocacy role.

After graduating from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1998, she began her legal career at a top tier law firm in Toronto and relocated to Winnipeg a few years later. Stacey is a member of the Bars of Ontario and Manitoba and is currently a partner with Carroll Fisher Belding (www.cfblaw.ca) in Winnipeg. She also serves on the board of several corporations and the charitable relief/international development organization, Canadian Communications Relief Project (CCRP), of which she was a founding member.
