Free seminar about working in Canada

JOBCAN, a full-service foreign recruitment company offering temporary and permanent job opportunities with Canadian companies to qualified workers from other countries, will conduct a free seminar in Guimba, Nueva Ecija on July 22, through the initiative of the Philippine Consulate in Winnepeg, and supported by Manila Broadcasting Company's 105.3 Radyo Natin Guimba.

Stacey Belding

Stacey Belding, a top-notch Canadian immigration lawyer and Managing Director of JobCan Inc. will speak on Canadian immigration and worker recruitment, including demographic factors that influence the current demand for immigration. She will also provide practical advise about avoiding unscrupulous agents/recruiters, along with methods for protecting oneself from such individuals. Immigration eligibility assessment forms will also be distributed for free.

JobCan was started by the Canadian law firm Carroll Fisher Belding to connect qualified foreign workers with Canadian companies facing labour shortages. The company handles all steps of the foreign recruitment process including locating prospective employees, screening qualifications, videoconference interviewing, processing all immigration and related paperwork, reviewing/drafting employment contracts, and comprehensive settlement support.

With permanent offices in Berlin, Germany, and Manila, JobCan engages the assistance of foreign governments and affiliates in other overseas locations for candidate recruitment.

In addition, it offers full immigration-related services and business/land acquisition opportunities in Canada.

Stacey Belding graduated from the Osgood Hall Law School in 1998 and began her legal career at a top tier law firm in Toronto before relocating to Winnepeg. She is a member of the Bars of Ontario and Manitoba, and serves on the board of several corporations. She was also a founding member of the Canadian Communications Relief Project.

Joining Ms. Belding on the seminar panel will be JobCan's local representative Fely Silvestre, together with the Honorary Consul General Edda Pangilinan. No fees will be collected at any time during the group's visit, and participants will not be under any obligation to retain JobCan's services at any time.

For inquiries, e-mail belding@cfblaw.ca

ENGLISH CROSSWORD

DOWN
1 Indonesian island
2 Popeye's love

PINOY KROSWORD